Please see other side for Grad Anecdote

Grad Anecdote

Your grad anecdote is what will be read as you cross the stage and receive your diploma at convocation. As this is a formal event, it is important that your anecdote is appropriate for the occasion. This is not the time/place for “inside jokes,” shout-outs to your significant other, etc. Your anecdote should be no more than 20 words maximum.

Please submit your form to Mrs. Coutu (C174), Mr. Simington (C177), or Mrs. Willock (office) for approval.

Your options:

1) Your post-secondary plans, career plans, or life goals:

Ex: “Sam intends to get his Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing at UBC, leading to his dream job of being a Psychiatric Nurse.”

2) Thanking your parents, teachers, or significant life influences:

Ex: “Jenny would like to thank Mrs. Smith for teaching her the value of hard work and determination. Thanks for never giving up on me!”

3) A profound or meaningful quote that represents you:

Ex: “This above all: to thine own self be true”- William Shakespeare’s Hamlet.
